

November Sustainable Forestry Seminar

How to Have Your Trees and Cut Them Too

A two-day learning event about Sustainable Forestry Practices

Saturday and Sunday, November 19 & 20, 2005

Holiday Trails Camp, Charlottesville

This is a seminar for Virginians who are interested in optimizing the values of their forests.  Hot News: Attendance to this Sustainable Forestry Seminar qualifies for Continuing Forestry Education credits! Contact Steve Brooks for details:

Steve 276-479-2176 vafw@mounet.com

Who should attend . . .

- Landowners
- Foresters
- Loggers
- Land Managers

What You'll Get Out of This Seminar

- How to Maximize the Value of Your Trees
- Threats to Health of Trees
- Stumpage Price Trends
- Knowing the Market
- Selling into a Seller's Market

Featuring Clint Trammel, Forest Manager at Pioneer Forest. For more than half a century, Pioneer Forest in Missouri has been successfully restoring and harvesting 160,000 acres of Ozark woodland through conservative, natural forest Management, Clint has 35 years of experience in sustainable forestry.

Saturday, November 19

8 - 9:00 AM Breakfast/Registration

9:00 Welcome

9:15 - 10:00 The State of Virginia's Forests – Today and Tomorrow – John Scivani, Virginia Department of Forestry

10:00 - 11:00 What is Sustainable Forestry? The Pioneer Approach – Clint Trammel

11:00 Break

11:15 - 12:15 Forest Management Case Studies – Michael Lewis, Forester

12:30 Lunch

1:30 A Walk in the Forest (on site) - A discussion of sustainable forestry practices

4:00 Landowner Assistance Programs – Jean Lorber

4:30 Market Demand for Sustainable Wood Products – Matt Gilchrist/Eric Gilchrist

5:00 Blue Ridge Forest Landowner Cooperative – Harry Groot

Adjourn at 5:30 PM

6:00 Dinner (Catered at Holiday Trails Camp)

Sunday, November 20

8:00 Breakfast/Registration

9:00 Sustainable Forestry – Clint Trammel

9:30 Horse Logging – Jason Rutledge

10:30 Field Trip to local forest

12:30 Lunch (Included in Registration Fee)

2:00 Adjourn

Sponsored by:

Virginia Forest Watch

Model Forest Policy Program

The Nature Conservancy

Appalachian Sustainable Development

Northland Forest Products, Inc.

Pioneer Forest